THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION

NO. _____

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Bi Wen Liu, Xue Xiu Liu, Xiu Ju Zhuang, Chun Jin Dong, Yu Zhu Liu, Li Hua Liu, Jin Yu Zheng, Yong Qiang Liu, Ling Lin, Bao Guan Shao, Guang Zhong Li, Nick (Ren Xing) Zhang, Xin Wu Chen, Jing Tuan Liu, Dao Chai Wu, Jing Chun Zheng, Xin Hao Ou, Yi Chi Weng, Jun Guang Chen, Jin Eu Chen, Yong He Dong, Yong Fei Liu, and Yan Ying Liu, bring this action against Defendant, The City of Philadelphia, and allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a civil action for damages and injunctive relief arising under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

2. At relevant times, Defendant has engaged in invidious discrimination against certain Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses in Philadelphia, including Plaintiffs, through adoption and administration of Philadelphia Ordinance § 9-627 (“11

P.M. Ordinance”) resulting in Plaintiffs being unconstitutionally deprived of equal protection of the laws in violation of the 42 U.S.C. §1983.

3. Philadelphia City Council enacted the 11 P.M. Ordinance with the intent to target and discriminate against certain Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses in Philadelphia.

4. Further, the 11 P.M. Ordinance’s terms are so vague that persons of ordinary intelligence must necessarily guess as to their meaning and differ as to their application.

5. The 11 P.M. Ordinance has been selectively enforced against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses.

6. As a result of the unconstitutionally vague 11 P.M. Ordinance and its selective enforcement, at relevant times certain Chinese take-out restaurant business owners in Philadelphia have been required to pay thousands of dollars in fines as a result of discriminatory code violation notices (“CVNs”) issued to them under the 11 P.M. Ordinance by the City of Philadelphia’s Police Department, and have been otherwise damaged.

JURISDICTION

7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343.

8. There is personal jurisdiction because the Defendant is located in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the unlawful actions giving rise to Plaintiffs’ claims occurred within the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

VENUE

9. Venue lies in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), as the events giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

PARTIES

10. Plaintiff Bi Wen Liu is a Chinese-American who owned the now-closed China Clover Chinese Restaurant ("China Clover"), formerly located at 3807 Pulaski Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19140. Liu owned and operated China Clover from approximately 2009 to approximately 2014, when Liu closed China Clover as a result of the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

11. Plaintiff Xue Xiu Liu is a Chinese-American who currently owns Choy Yung Inn Chinese restaurant ("Choy Yung Inn"), 1526 South 22nd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19146. At relevant times, Xue Xiu Liu has owned and operated Choy Yung Inn.

12. Plaintiff Xiu Ju Zhuang is a Chinese-American who owned the now-closed DY's Express Chinese restaurant ("DY's Express"), 1700 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, PA, 19145. Zhuang owned and operated DY's Express until approximately 2013, when Zhuang closed DY's Express as a result of the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

13. Plaintiff Chun Jin Dong is a Chinese-American who currently owns Four Seasons Chinese restaurant ("Four Seasons"), 1468 North 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19151. At relevant times, Chun Jin Dong has owned and operated Four Seasons.

14. Plaintiff Yu Zhu Liu is a Chinese-American who formerly owned Golden City Chinese restaurant ("Golden City"), 4132 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140. Liu has owned and operated Golden City until approximately September 2014, when Liu sold Golden City as a result of the 11 P.M. Ordinance. At relevant times, Yu Zhu Liu owned and operated Golden City.

15. Plaintiff Li Hua Liu is a Chinese-American who currently owns Golden City, 4132 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140. At relevant times, Li Hua Liu has owned and operated Golden City.

16. Plaintiff Jin Yu Zheng is a Chinese-American who currently owns Golden Dragon Chinese restaurant (“Golden Dragon”), 4163 North Darien Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140. At relevant times, Jin Yu Zheng has owned and operated Golden Dragon.

17. Plaintiff Yong Qiang Liu is a Chinese-American who currently owns Golden Empire Chinese restaurant (“Golden Empire”), 1732 South 58th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143. At relevant times, Yong Qiang Liu has owned and operated Golden Empire.

18. Plaintiff Ling Lin is a Chinese-American who owned the former Good Taste Chinese restaurant, formerly located at 529 S. 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143. As a result of the enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance, Ling Lin was forced to close her restaurant. At relevant times, Lin owned and operated Good Taste.

19. Plaintiff Bao Guan Shao is a Chinese-American who currently owns Grace House Chinese restaurant (“Grace House”), 134 North 52nd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139. At relevant times, Bao Guan Shao has owned and operated Grace House.

20. Plaintiff Guang Zhong Li is a Chinese-American who currently owns Great Wall Chinese restaurant ("Great Wall"), 6705 Torresdale Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19135. At relevant times, Guang Zhong Li has owned and operated Great Wall.

21. Plaintiff Nick (Ren Xing) Zhang is a Chinese-American who currently owns Jade Palace Chinese restaurant ("Jade Palace"), 3468 North Water Street, Philadelphia, PA 19134. At relevant times, Nick (Ren Xing) Zhang has owned and operated Jade Palace.

32. Plaintiff Lan Ying Liu is a Chinese-American who currently owns Yummy Yummy Chinese restaurant (“Yummy Yummy”), 4761 Griscom Street, Philadelphia, PA 19124. At relevant times, Liu has owned and operated Yummy Yummy.

33. Defendant The City of Philadelphia is a municipal corporation, defined as a City of the First Class, formed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with a business address of One Parkway Building, 17th Floor, 1515 Arch Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102-1595.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

I. LEGISLATIVE HISTORY INDICATES THAT THE PASSAGE AND SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENT OF THE 11 P.M. ORDINANCE INTENDED TO TARGET CERTAIN CHINESE PEOPLE AND THEIR CHINESE TAKE-OUT RESTAURANT BUSINESSES

A. Philadelphia City Council Passed the 11 P.M. Ordinance In Response to Complaints About Certain Chinese People and Their Chinese Take-Out Restaurant Businesses

34. On or about January 25, 2005, Philadelphia's Mayor John A. Street signed into law the 11 P.M. Ordinance (Bill No. 040788-AA), which amended Chapter 9-600 of The Philadelphia Code, and provided for "regulating the hours of operation of commercial establishments located on residential blocks and provided for penalties, all under certain terms and conditions." A copy of the 11 P.M. Ordinance is attached as Exhibit A.

35. The 11 P.M. Ordinance was designed and has been enforced to target certain Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses on "residential blockfaces" in Philadelphia and prohibits the operation of these businesses between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. Phila. Code. § 9-627(4).

36. The 11 P.M. Ordinance targets such certain Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses in Philadelphia though its definition of "commercial establishment." A commercial establishment is limited to "an establishment involved in the buying and selling of goods where consumers primarily purchase goods intended for consumption or use off premises.” Phila. Code. § 9-627(3)(a).

37. The 11 P.M. Ordinance prohibits any commercial establishment from operating between the designated hours if the commercial establishment is located on a “residential blockface.” Phila. Code. § 9-627(4).

38. The 11 P.M. Ordinance’s definition of “residential blockface” provides:

One side of a segment of a street that does not extend beyond any intersection with another street, or a portion thereof, and where eighty percent (80%) or more of the buildings are dwellings. A blockface shall not be considered a residential blockface if, geographically, fifty percent (50%) or more of the block frontage is comprised of commercial establishments.

Phila. Code. § 9-627(3).

39. In 2007, Philadelphia City Council amended the 11 P.M. Ordinance to target “take-out restaurants” located on corner lots where two streets intersect. The 11 P.M. Ordinance as amended provides that “such establishment shall be considered to be located on a residential blockface if either of the streets which intersect at a corner meet the definition of residential blockface under this Section, notwithstanding the establishment’s assigned street address.” Phila. Code. § 9-627(4).

B. From Inception the 11 P.M. Ordinance Targeted Philadelphia’s Chinese People and Their Chinese Take-Out Restaurant Businesses

40. At the time of enactment, Philadelphia City Council claimed, through its legislative findings, that the law was necessary “to decrease criminal activity at late-night commercial establishments and promote a feeling of safety on predominately residential blockfaces in the City.” Phila. Code § 9-627(2).

41. However, the legislative history demonstrates that much of the testimony in favor of the bill focused specifically on Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses. Upon information and belief, the vast majority of Philadelphia Chinese take-out restaurant businesses are principally owned and operated by, and employ, persons of Chinese descent and nationality, including Chinese-Americans.

42. Demonstrating City Council’s focus on Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses, for example, at the 2004 City Council public hearing introducing the then-proposed 11 P.M. Ordinance, Councilman Rick Mariano disparaged Chinese people and their take-out restaurant businesses:

What I’m getting it is it got me to start look around a lot more. On Allegheny Avenue, for instance, for nine blocks about two blocks away from Kensington Avenue going up Allegheny going west, for nine blocks there’s a Chinese – not to Chinese people or anybody. But there’s a Chinese take-out restaurant on every corner. I mean every corner for nine blocks? Now, I know without getting the lady that works for me that does the zoning, because she did for me, but before she did it, I know none of them had license for take-out. What they had was a restaurant license. That’s not a restaurant.

Oct. 28, 2004 Philadelphia City Council Committee on Licenses and Inspections Public Hr. Trg. 22:5-18.

43. Without any factual support Councilman Mariano also asserted at the 2004 hearing that the 11 P.M. Ordinance was needed to regulate Chinese take-out restaurants because some sell drug paraphernalia:

If it's a place you go in and there's Plexiglas and they're selling Chinese food, crack pipes, cigarette papers, soda, and some places you can even get beer and malt liquor – that's a whole other issue. They're not restaurants. They are stop-n-goes and take out.

Id. at 22:18-23:24 (emphasis added).

44. Upon information and belief, none of the restaurants owned and operated by Plaintiffs has ever sold drug paraphernalia or alcohol.

45. As further rationale for the 11 P.M. Ordinance, Councilman Mariano argued that Chinese take-out restaurant business target the poor and provide low quality food:

And the annoying thing to us as elected officials is, like Ms. Cummings said, without thinking about the nutritional value, they pick the poor and the impoverished neighborhoods. You don't see these things in certain areas of the City. They creep up in neighborhoods that are economically disadvantaged and where people are just too busy with surviving everyday to realize, "Hey, that's good. While I'm at work because there's not a father figure, the kids can grab some Chinese food down the street because they're 14 and 13, they're old enough to go to the store. I'll leave them 10 bucks, they get Chinese food." Well, who knows what they're eating.

Id. at 23:25-24:16.

46. Consciously attempting to balance his remarks against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses, the Councilman added: "It doesn't have to be Chinese food, it could be Italian food, it could be anything." Id. at 24:16-18.

47. The commentary regarding Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses was not limited to City Council members such as Councilman Mariano. A witness at the hearing testified that the 11 P.M. Ordinance was needed specifically to address Chinese take-out restaurant businesses in Philadelphia:

I thought that the bill was mainly focussing (sic) on Chinese restaurants that are prevalent in our communities. There's a big difference between how these establishments are ran (sic) and what kind of dialog can take place between the residents of those kinds of establishments and, say, for instance, a Sunoco and these kinds of things. I think that there probably needs to be more thought given to separating the two. In my mind, the Chines (sic) restaurants – and again, I'm not picking on Chinese people. We know that they need to earn a living. But most times we are not able to communicate with them. We are not able to get a dialog going with them.

Id. at 68:11-25.

48. In response, Councilman Mariano stated: "At least Sunoco is here listening. Other companies aren't here. We get your point. Thank you." Id. at 69:2-4.

49. Similarly, a witness blamed a Chinese restaurant for crime in her area. Id. at 38:25-41:17.

C. The Public Record of the Passage of the 2007 Amendment to the 11 P.M. Ordinance Shows City Council Intended to Target Chinese People and Their Chinese Take-Out Restaurant Businesses

50. In 2007, Philadelphia City Council addressed a concern that the 11 P.M. Ordinance did not adequately reach commercial establishments located at intersections, such as where one "blockface" was "residential" and the other "commercial." A commercial establishment with a street address on a non-residential blockface was not subject to regulation under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

51. In 2007, an amendment to the 11 P.M. Ordinance regarding its application respecting street intersections demonstrated that the 11 P.M. Ordinance was specifically intended to target "take-out restaurants." During a public hearing on the proposed amendment, there was testimony that the 11 P.M. Ordinance was designed to target take-out restaurants and no other businesses, which could have allowed other businesses to stay open as late as they wanted. Oct. 23, 2007 Philadelphia City Council Committee on Licenses and Inspections Public Hrg. Trns. 33:21-34:20.

52. During debate concerning the proposed amendment, there was testimony specifically regarding operations of Chinese take-out restaurants. Id. at 38:25-41:70; 44:3-47:14.

53. The 2007 Amendment to the 11 P.M. Ordinance respecting street intersections was not extended to “commercial establishments.” The amendment was limited to apply only to “take-out restaurants.” This was because the 11 P.M. Ordinance was always intended to target Philadelphia’s Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses.

II. 11 P.M. ORDINANCE IS UNCONSTITUTIONALLY VAGUE

A. “Commercial Establishment” Is Unconstitutionally Vague

54. For the reasons set forth herein, among others, the 11 P.M. Ordinance is unconstitutionally vague as applied.

55. The 11 P.M. Ordinance regulates the operations of “commercial establishments.” A commercial establishment is “an establishment involved in the buying and selling of goods where consumers primarily purchase goods intended for consumption or use off premises.” Phila. Code. § 9-627(3)(a).

56. However, the 11 P.M. Ordinance does not define crucial terms for its application and enforcement. For example, it does not define the term “primarily” in its definition of “commercial establishment.” It provides no basis for determining when a business is primarily involved in the buying and selling of the requisite “goods.” Among other things, the 11 P.M. Ordinance does not specify over what period of time “primarily” is determined, or any basis on which “primarily” is calculated.

57. The 11 P.M. Ordinance provides no means or mechanism for the Philadelphia Police to make any required determination regarding when a business is a “commercial establishment ” for purposes of applying and enforcing the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

58. The Ordinance’s definition of “commercial establishment” is so vague that persons of ordinary intelligence must necessarily guess as to the meaning of the 11 P.M. Ordinance and differ as to its application. This has allowed its selective enforcement against Plaintiffs through the issuance of CVNs by Defendant.

B. “Residential Blockface” Is Unconstitutionally Vague

59. The Ordinance defines a “Residential Blockface” as follows:

One side of a segment of a street that does not extend beyond any intersection with another street, or a portion thereof, and where eighty percent (80%) or more of the buildings are dwellings. A blockface shall not be considered a residential blockface if, geographically, fifty percent (50%) or more of the block frontage is comprised of commercial establishments.

Phila. Code. § 9-627(3)(c).

60. Upon information and belief, there is no list, map, or other document that identifies which areas in Philadelphia are subject to the 11 P.M. Ordinance as “residential blockfaces.” This is because the designation of an area as residential at any given time defies certainty and fails to provide persons affected with notice of when a business is subject to the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

61. The vagueness of the definition of “residential blockface” is demonstrated by the record of enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance itself by the Philadelphia Police Department.

62. For example, various officers of the Philadelphia Police Department have calculated different results with respect to the same Chinese restaurant, with one officer describing the subject blockface as comprised of “5 businesses, 10 units,” and another officer describing the same location as involving “3 - Business / 3 - units.” These citations are attached as Exhibit B. In some instances, the same officer even calculated different results for the same Chinese restaurant on separate occasions. For example, Good Luck Chinese, 529 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, received tickets issued by the same officers who calculated both “3 business 13 units” and “6 residential 3 business.” These citations are attached as Exhibit C.

63. The 11 P.M. Ordinance provides no means or mechanism for the Philadelphia Police to make any required determination regarding when a street constitutes a “residential blockface” for purposes of applying and enforcing the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

64. The Ordinance’s definition of “residential blockface” is so vague that persons of ordinary intelligence must necessarily guess as to the meaning of the 11 P.M. Ordinance and differ as to its application. This has allowed its selective enforcement against Plaintiffs through the issuance of CVNs by Defendant.

C. “Take-Out Restaurant” Is Unconstitutionally Vague

65. In connection with the definition of “residential blockface,” the 11 P.M.

Ordinance defines “take-out restaurant” as follows:

(d) Take-out Restaurant. A commercial establishment engaged in the preparation and retail sale of food and beverages where the serving of prepared food and/or beverages in disposable packaging and/or containers for consumption by patrons off the premises constitutes more than fifty (50) percent of the establishment's gross revenues.

Phila. Code. § 9-627(3)(d).

66. Upon information and belief, there is no official designation under the 11 P.M. Ordinance of what businesses qualify as “take out restaurants.” While the 11 P.M. Ordinance identifies gross revenues as a basis for determination, the 11 P.M. Ordinance supplies no specification of when or how gross revenues are to be determined and applied.

67. The 11 P.M. Ordinance provides no means or mechanism for the Philadelphia Police to make any such required determination regarding what businesses are “take-out restaurants” for purposes of applying and enforcing the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

68. The 11 P.M. Ordinance’s definition of “take-out restaurant” is so vague that persons of ordinary intelligence must necessarily guess as to the meaning of the 11 P.M. ordinance and differ as to its application. This has allowed its selective enforcement against Plaintiffs through the issuance of CVNs by Defendant.

III. THE 11 P.M. ORDINANCE HAS BEEN SELECTIVELY ENFORCED TO DISCRIMINATE AGAINST CHINESE PEOPLE AND THEIR CHINESE TAKE-OUT RESTAURANT BUSINESSES

69. The 11 P.M. Ordinance was intended to target Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses and is impermissibly vague as applied. Consistent with these features of the 11 P.M. Ordinance, it has also been selectively enforced against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses.

70. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, the Philadelphia Police Department issued approximately 861 total CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. In FY 2015, approximately ninety-six percent of the total CVNs were issued against Chinese take-out restaurant businesses. In FY 2016, at least eighty-five percent of the CVNs were issued against Chinese take-out restaurant businesses.

71. Of the CVNs issued under the 11 P.M. Ordinance during fiscal years 2015 and 2016, approximately eighty percent of the CVNs were against Chinese take-out restaurants on street corners.

72. One CVN issued to Rose Garden Chinese Restaurant in Philadelphia stated that “[a]ll Chinese restaurants have been advised to close due to neighborhood.” A copy of this CVN is attached as Exhibit D.

73. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Bi Wen Liu’s China Clover Chinese restaurant has received at least five CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015, China Clover received a CVN on July 13, 2014. These CVNs totaled more than $1,000 in fines. To contest the CVNs, Liu incurred expense and was damaged.

74. Bi Wen Liu has limited English proficiency, and has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. Liu tried to show a police officer that China Clover was on a non-residential blockface not subject to the 11 P.M. Ordinance. The police threatened to arrest Liu, and one officer even sought to close the restaurant by forcibly pulling down the restaurant's metal gate.

75. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Xue Xiu Liu's Choy Yung Inn Chinese restaurant received about ten CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015, Choy Yung Inn received a CVN on August 10, 2014. To contest the CVNs, Liu incurred expenses and was damaged.

76. Upon information and belief, near Choy Yung Inn, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, Southside Chicken & Seafood Philly Pizza, 1508 Point Breeze Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19146, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Southside Chicken & Seafood Philly Pizza has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

77. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Xiu Ju Zhuang's DY's Express Chinese restaurant received at least ten CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015, DY's Express received a CVN on August 24, 2014. These CVNs totaled more than $1,000 in fines.

78. Xiu Ju Zhuang has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. Even when Zhuang had already closed DY's Express, the police would sometimes still issue CVNs. The police would wait outside the restaurant to issue CVNs at about 11:00 p.m. Even when the restaurant signs were turned off and the entrance door was locked, Zhuang still received CVNs, apparently because lights were on in the back of the structure, and Zhuang was present. Sometimes Zhuang found CVNs under the door the next day, without any explanation.

79. Upon information and belief, near DY's Express, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, Nick's Old Original Roast Beef, 2149 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19145, and San Lucas Pizzeria, 2000 South Bouvier Street, Philadelphia, PA 19145, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Nick's Old Original Roast Beef and San Lucas Pizzeria have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

80. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Chun Jin Dong's Four Seasons Chinese restaurant received at least two CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015, Four Seasons received a CVN on September 24, 2014. In some cases, the police reportedly prepared CVNs before 11:00 p.m. and waited until 11:00 p.m. to issue the CVNs to Four Seasons.

81. Upon information and belief, near Four Seasons, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, Jim's Steaks, 431 North 62nd Street, Philadelphia, PA 19151, also stayed open past 11:00 P.M. Based on the available records, Jim's Steaks has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

82. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Yu Zhu Liu and Li Hua Liu's Golden City Chinese restaurant received a total of at least ten CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Golden City received CVNs from approximately September 6, 2014 through May 14, 2016, including from Defendant Officer 2462.

83. Yu Zhu Liu and Li Hua Liu have limited English proficiency, and thus have only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs.

84. Upon information and belief, near Golden City, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, Domino's Pizza, 4229 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, and McDonald's, 4200 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, also stayed open past 11 P.M. Based on the available records, Domino's Pizza and McDonald's were never cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

85. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Jin Yu Zheng's Golden Dragon Chinese restaurant received dozens of CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Golden Dragon received CVNs from approximately July 2, 2014 through July 30, 2015. Zheng's most recent CVNs were issued in or approximately 2017.

86. Upon information and belief, near Golden Dragon, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, El Greco Pizza, 4301 North 9th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, and Old English Style Pizza, 4163 North 9th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, El Greco Pizza and Old English Style Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

87. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Yong Qiang Liu's Golden Empire Chinese restaurant received more than twenty CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

88. Yong Qiang Liu has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. In some cases, the police issued CVNs even after Golden Empire had closed its doors (leaving the CVNs in the mailbox).

89. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Ling Lin's Good Taste Chinese restaurant received at least twenty CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Good Taste received CVNs from approximately November 8, 2014 through June 26, 2016.

90. Ling Lin has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. When Lin went to hearings to contest her previous CVNs, the court found that Good Taste was on a commercial block not subject to the ordinance, and dismissed these CVNs. When Lin tried to show this evidence to the police, the officer ignored the court dismissals and stated: "You can go [to] hearings to get tickets dismissed, but I'll ticket you anyway. If you don't close, I'll force you to close in any way."

91. When Lin tried to ask the police why a nearby pizza restaurant didn't receive CVNs, the police responded: "It's none of your business whether I'll ticket them or not. I'm asking you to close now. I'm not giving them a ticket, just you. If you don't close I can find all kinds of reasons to give you a ticket." Once Lin tried to start recording the interactions with the police, the officer stopped talking and physically blocked the door to the restaurant.

92. Upon information and belief, near Good Taste, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, South Style Pizza & Deli, 449 South 61st Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, also stayed open past 11 P.M. Based on the available records, South Style Pizza & Deli was never cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

93. Upon information and belief, Grace Chinese restaurant, 608 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, received at least three CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Grace Chinese received three CVNs from approximately April 12, 2015 through June 26, 2016. Yang's most recent CVNs were issued in or approximately 2017.

94. Upon information and belief, near Grace Chinese, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, South Style Pizza & Deli, 449 South 61st Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, South Style Pizza & Deli has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

95. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Bao Guan Shao's Grace House Chinese restaurant received at least thirteen CVNs from approximately December 9, 2016 through February 24, 2017 under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

96. When Bao Guan Shao contested the CVNs in court, Shao incurred expense and was damaged.

97. After Shao's court proceedings, a police officer argued that while Grace House was on a commercial block, the opposite side of the street was a residential block. In some instances, police would just leave tickets in Grace House's mail box, without any indication that the ticket had been issued when the restaurant was still open. This police treatment under the 11 P.M. Ordinance prompted Shao to move and relocate the business.

98. Upon information and belief, near Grace House, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, Checkers, 5129 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, and Pete's Pizza, 5158 Haverford Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19139, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Checkers and Pete's Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

99. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Guang Zhong Li's Great Wall Chinese restaurant received at least five CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Great Wall received three CVNs from approximately March 2, 2016 through June 5, 2016.

100. When Li tried to ask the police why nearby pizza restaurants were not cited, the police replied: "None of your business."

101. Upon information and belief, near Great Wall, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, Bravo's Pizza, 6702 Torresdale Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19135, and Non Stop Pizza, 6601 Hegerman Street, Philadelphia, PA 19135, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Bravo's Pizza and Non Stop Pizza & Grille have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

102. Upon information and belief, Hong Kong Chinese restaurant, 100 North Edgewood Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, received at least four CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Hong Kong received four CVNs from approximately September 12, 2014 through April 23, 2016.

103. Upon information and belief, near Hong Kong, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, Pete's Pizza, 201 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pete's Pizza has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

104. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Nick (Ren Xing) Zhang's Jade Palace Chinese restaurant received at least four CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Jade Palace received four CVNs from approximately August 2, 2014 through August 6, 2015.

105. Upon information and belief, near Jade Palace, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, Pizza Power, 123 East Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19134, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pizza Power has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

106. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Xin Wu Chen's Li Lai Chinese restaurant received at least four CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Li Lai received one CVN on March 24, 2015.

107. Upon information and belief at least three similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants near Li Lai, Delancey Street Pizzeria, 5701 Delancey Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, Jim's Pizza & Steaks, 5605 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, and Pete's Pizza, 201 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. In fact, Delancey Street Pizzeria and Pete's Pizza appear to be on more residential blocks than Li Lai. Based on the available records, Delancey Street Pizzeria, Jim's Pizza & Steaks, and Pete's Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

108. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Jing Tuan Liu's Lucky Garden Chinese restaurant received at least seven CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Lucky Garden received seven CVNs from approximately August 2, 2014 through June 20, 2015. Recently, Liu received CVNs in or approximately April 2017.

109. Jing Tuan Liu has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. The police sometimes even issued CVNs after Lucky Garden had already closed by 11:00 p.m. In one instance, Liu's family was eating inside the restaurant after it closed, and customers came and knocked on the door. Even though Liu did not open the door and serve the customer, the police still issued a CVN. In other instances, the police issued a CVN just because people were walking approximately Lucky Garden's building, or because a neighbor moved and parked a car in front of the restaurant.

110. Upon information and belief, near Lucky Garden, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, El Greco Pizza, 4301 North 9th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, and Old English Style Pizza, 4163 North 9th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, El Greco Pizza and Old English Style Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

111. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Dao Chai Wu's Lucky House Chinese restaurant received at least eight CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Lucky House received five CVNs from approximately March 2, 2016 through June 7, 2016. Recently, Wu received CVNs in or approximately March 2018. Wu contested these CVNs, incurring expenses and damages.

112. Upon information and belief, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants near Lucky House, Marabello's Pizza, 6019 Torresdale Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19135, and Star Pizza, 5801 Torresdale Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19135, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Marabello's Pizza and Star Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

113. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Jing Chun Zheng's and Xin Hao Ou's Ming Moon Chinese restaurant received more than eighty CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Ming Moon received eighty-four CVNs from approximately July 9, 2014 through November 10, 2015. The former owner, Zheng, incurred expenses and was damaged in contesting CVNs.

114. Jing Chun Zheng and Xin Hao Ou have limited English proficiency, and thus have only a basic understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. When Zheng tried to ask the police why other open restaurants were not being cited, the officer insisted: "Just your Chinese restaurant." Sometimes the police cited Ming Moon even after it was closed: the restaurant had an automatic lit-up sign that stayed on, and police would issue CVNs if the restaurant's light was on, even if the restaurant was closed.

115. Upon information and belief, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant near Ming Moon, Pizza House Express, 529 East Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19134, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pizza House Express has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

116. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Yi Chi Weng's No. 1 Chinese restaurant received at least thirty CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

117. When Weng tried to ask the police why a nearby open pizza restaurant did not receive CVNs, the police responded: “none of your business.” In one instance, a police officer even came and waited in the doorway right before 11:00 p.m., preventing the owner from closing the restaurant, and then issued a CVN at 11:01 P.M. In another instance, Weng received a CVN even after the restaurant was closed, because the police saw Weng speaking to people outside the back door.

118. Upon information and belief, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant near No. 1 Chinese, Pizza House Express, 529 East Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19134, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pizza House Express has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

119. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Jun Guang Chen’s Oriental Sun Chinese restaurant received at least twenty CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Oriental Sun received six CVNs from approximately July 22, 2014 through May 25, 2016.

120. Jun Guang Chen has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a very limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs. According to Chen, police would sometimes wait outside Oriental Sun before 11:00 p.m., already starting to write the CVNs, and issuing the CVNs while the customers were still waiting to pick up the food they had ordered before 11:00 p.m.

121. Upon information and belief, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant near Oriental Sun, El Principe, 115 West Lehigh Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19133, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, El Principe has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

122. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Jin Eu Chen's Panda Chinese restaurant received at least ten CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Panda received thirteen CVNs from approximately July 26, 2014 through October 1, 2015.

123. Upon information and belief, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant near Panda Chinese, Pizza House Express, 529 East Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19134, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pizza House Express has never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

124. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Yong He Dong's Peking Inn Chinese restaurant received dozens of CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Peking Inn received around thirteen CVNs from approximately March 19, 2015 through June 5, 2016. These CVNs totaled more than $1,000 in fines.

125. Yong He Dong has limited English proficiency, and thus has only a very limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs.

126. Upon information and belief, near Peking Inn, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurant, Penn Cafe and Pizzeria, 4909 Catharine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, also stayed open past 11 P.M. Based on the available records, Penn Cafe and Pizzeria was never cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

127. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Yong Fei Liu's Pine Chinese restaurant received at least twenty-three CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years

2015 and 2016, Pine Chinese received twenty-three CVNs from approximately July 5, 2014 through June 11, 2016.

128. Upon information and belief, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants near Pine Chinese, Pete's Pizza, 201 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, and South Style Pizza & Deli, 449 South 61st Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Pete's Pizza and South Style Pizza & Deli have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

129. Upon information and belief, Spring Garden Chinese restaurant, 144 South 57th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, received at least four CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Spring Garden received four CVNs from approximately April 1, 2015 through October 24, 2015.

130. Upon information and belief, at least two similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants near Spring Garden, Delancey Street Pizzeria, 5701 Delancey Street, Philadelphia, PA 19143, and Pete's Pizza, 201 South 60th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19139, also stayed open past 11:00 p.m. Based on the available records, Delancey Street Pizzeria and Pete's Pizza have never been cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

131. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Lan Ying Liu's Yummy Yummy Chinese restaurant received at least eight CVNs under the 11 P.M. Ordinance, despite being located on an arguably non-residential blockface. During fiscal years 2015 and 2016, Yummy Yummy received eight CVNs from approximately May 30, 2015 through March 2, 2016,. These CVNs totaled thousands of dollars in fines.

132. Lan Ying Liu has limited English proficiency and thus has only a limited understanding of communications with the police who issued CVNs.

133. Upon information and belief, near Yummy Yummy, at least one similarly situated non-Chinese restaurants, Teddy's Pizza, 4748 Frankford Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19124, also stayed open past 11 P.M. Based on the available records, Teddy's Pizza was never cited under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

134. Additionally, upon information and belief, a survey of Philadelphia restaurants suggests that many non-Chinese restaurants should be subject to the 11 P.M. Ordinance. Focusing only on pizza restaurants, for example, the following may be located on "residential blockfaces" under the 11 P.M. Ordinance, post opening hours past 11:00 p.m., and have never received CVN, based on at least two years of available records:

135. The City of Philadelphia has engaged in a pattern and practice to discriminate against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses, which has resulted in an extremely disproportionate number of CVNs being issued against them. This pattern and practice of discrimination has deprived Plaintiffs of equal protection under the U.S. Constitution.

IV. PLAINTIFFS DID NOT KNOW OF THE DISCRIMINATORY SELECTIVE ENFORCEMENT OF THE 11 P.M. ORDINANCE BEFORE NOVEMBER 2016

136. Plaintiffs were unaware of the selective enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance until November 2016. Although some Plaintiffs had questioned the Philadelphia Police Department about their individual businesses, Plaintiffs had no way of knowing the extent of the discrimination against them until November 2016.

137. In the fall of 2016, Councilman David Oh began investigating complaints from Chinese-American business owners regarding the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

138. On November 14, 2016, Paula Weiss, Esq., Executive Director, Philadelphia Office of Administrative Review, issued a report to Francis T. Healy, Esq., Special Advisor to the Philadelphia Police Commissioner regarding "Code Violation Notices Issued for The Philadelphia Code Section 9-627." A copy of the report is attached as Exhibit E.

139. This report described the discrimination faced by Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses with respect to the 11 P.M. Ordinance. It was not until the report was issued that Plaintiffs were aware they were being deprived of equal protection of the laws.

V. AFTER A MEETING WITH THE PHILADELPHIA CITY SOLICITOR, ENFORCEMENT OF THE ORDINANCE AGAINST CHINESE PEOPLE AND THEIR CHINESE TAKE-OUT RESTAURANT BUSINESSES DECLINED SHARPLY

140. Councilman Oh continued to investigate throughout 2017 and made more and more Chinese-American business owners aware of the discrimination they faced under the 11 P.M. Ordinance.

141. Councilman Oh prepared a report entitled “Examples of Selective Enforcement of Section 9-627.” The report was last updated by Councilman Oh’s office on August 21, 2017 and describes in detail selective discriminatory enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance. A copy of the report is attached as Exhibit F.

142. Councilman Oh sent a copy of his report to the City Solicitor’s Office. Then-solicitor Sozi Tulante responded by letter to Councilman Oh on September 15, 2017. In his letter, Solicitor Tulante denied any discriminatory enforcement but noted that he would speak with the Police Department about enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance and would “look into any such [discriminatory] suspicious or allegations promptly.” A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit G.

143. Councilman Oh responded to Solicitor Tulante on September 25, 2017. He noted, “The evidence of discrimination is clear, and I will continue to focus on achieving a permanent resolution to end discrimination against the Chinese takeout business owners in Philadelphia.” A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit H.

144. Following this exchange, enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance against Chinese people and their Chinese takeout restaurant businesses declined precipitously through about early 2018. Upon information and belief, the Philadelphia Police Department reduced enforcement of the Ordinance against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurants businesses because of these events.

145. Beginning in about mid-2018, the selective discriminatory enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance resumed against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses with reported renewed discriminatory enforcement efforts by Defendant.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I – VIOLATION OF THE EQUAL PROTECTION CLAUSES OF THE FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION, VINDICTIVE AND SELECTIVE ENFORCEMENT (42 U.S.C. § 1983)

146. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each of the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

147. Plaintiffs, as Chinese Americans, are a protected class under the Equal Protection Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

148. The City of Philadelphia intentionally discriminated against Chinese people and their Chinese take-out restaurant businesses based on race and/or national origin by carefully crafting the 11 P.M. Ordinance to have this discriminatory effect.

149. The City of Philadelphia unlawfully deprives Plaintiffs of their rights to equal protection of the laws by intentionally and purposefully enforcing the 11 P.M. Ordinance selectively and in a discriminatory manner against Plaintiffs and others.

150. The City of Philadelphia selectively and discriminatorily enforced the 11 P.M. Ordinance against Plaintiffs based on their race.

151. Similarly situated, non-Chinese restaurant owners in the City of Philadelphia otherwise subject to the 11 P.M. Ordinance were treated differently than Plaintiffs.

152. As a direct and proximate result of the City of Philadelphia's intentional and purposeful racial discrimination against Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs suffered the injuries described above.

153. The above-described actions of the City of Philadelphia were so malicious, intentional and reckless, and displayed such a reckless indifference to Plaintiffs' rights and well-being, that the imposition of punitive damages is warranted.

154. Accordingly, the 11 P.M. Ordinance violates the Equal Protection Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

COUNT II – VIOLATION OF THE FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS' DUE PROCESS CLAUSES, THE 11 P.M. ORDINANCE IS UNCONSTITUTIONALLY
VAGUE
(42 U.S.C. § 1983)

155. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each of the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

156. The due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution prohibit the enforcement of legislation that is unduly vague.

157. The 11 P.M. Ordinance is unduly vague because its prohibitions are not sufficiently defined and a person of ordinary intelligence cannot reasonably interpret what is prohibited.

158. Specifically, the terms “commercial establishment,” “residential blockface,” and “take-out restaurant” are impermissibly vague because it is simply not apparent to Plaintiffs, other similarly situated business owners, and to police officers charged with enforcing the 11 P.M. Ordinance, what these terms mean.

159. The definitions of these terms in the 11 P.M. Ordinance are so vague that one can only guess as to their meaning.

160. The impermissibly vague provisions of the 11 P.M. Ordinance have permitted selective and discriminatory enforcement of the 11 P.M. Ordinance, which has resulted in significant harm to Plaintiffs as described above.

161. Accordingly, the 11 P.M. Ordinance is void for vagueness under the due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court:

1. Declare Philadelphia Ordinance § 9-627 void.
2. Enjoin the City of Philadelphia from enforcing Philadelphia Ordinance § 9-627.

3. Enter final judgment in Plaintiffs' favor and against Defendant The City of Philadelphia for monetary damages, including, but not limited to, all amounts necessary to compensate Plaintiffs for fines issued and paid under Philadelphia Ordinance § 9-627 and for costs and expenses Plaintiffs incurred in contesting the illegal fines.

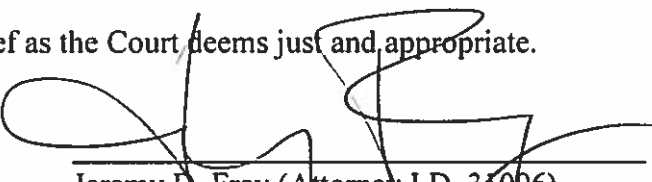

4. Enter final judgment in Plaintiffs' favor and against Defendant The City of Philadelphia for punitive or exemplary damages for their willful or malicious conduct.

5. Enter final judgment in Plaintiffs' favor and against Defendant The City of Philadelphia for attorneys' fees in bringing this action to protect Plaintiffs' constitutionally protected rights.

6. Award attorneys' fees and costs under 28 U.S.C. § 1988.

7. Such further relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

The Philadelphia Code

§ 9-627. Commercial Establishments on Residential Blockfaces. 896

(1) Legislative Findings. The Council finds that:

(a) There has been a growing problem in neighborhoods with nuisance retail shops, including but not limited to take out, convenience establishments. As nuisance stores, these shops have become a haven for drug activity and crime.

(b) Many of these take out establishments, because of the clientele which they attract and the late night hours during which they operate, have a negative impact upon the safety of adjacent areas, particularly when such adjacent areas are residential in nature.

(c) In order to prevent crime and to promote a feeling of safety in the City of Philadelphia's communities and neighborhoods, restrictions in addition to those contained in existing zoning ordinances and regulations are necessary to reduce the nighttime hours during which take out, commercial establishments located on predominantly residential blockfaces operate.

(2) Legislative Purpose. The purpose of this Section is to decrease criminal activity at late-night commercial establishments and promote a feeling of safety on predominately residential blockfaces in the City.

(3) Definitions.

(a) Commercial Establishment. An establishment involved in the buying and selling of goods where consumers primarily purchase goods intended for consumption or use off premises.

(b) Dwelling. A building which is used or intended to be used exclusively for living or sleeping by human occupants.

(c) Residential Blockface. One side of a segment of a street that does not extend beyond any intersection with another street, or a portion thereof, and where eighty percent (80%) or more of the buildings are dwellings. A blockface shall not be considered a residential blockface if, geographically, fifty percent (50%) or more of the block frontage is comprised of commercial establishments.

(d) Take-out Restaurant. A commercial establishment engaged in the preparation and retail sale of food and beverages where the serving of prepared food and/or beverages in disposable packaging and/or containers for consumption by patrons off the premises constitutes more than fifty (50) percent of the establishment's gross revenues. 897

(4) Prohibited Conduct. 898 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Code, no commercial establishment located on a residential blockface shall be open to the public between 11 P.M. and 6 A.M. For purposes of this ordinance, the location of a commercial establishment shall be determined by the street address assigned by the Board of Revision of Taxes under Section 19-1304(2). Where a take-out restaurant is located on a corner lot where two streets intersect, such establishment shall be considered to be located on a residential blockface if either of the streets which intersect at that corner meet the definition of residential blockface under this Section, notwithstanding the establishment's assigned street address.

(5) Required Posting. 899 Every commercial establishment located on a residential blockface must display a poster, supplied by the Department of Licenses and Inspections upon the payment by the establishment of a reasonable fee, which indicates that the establishment is subject to the terms of this Ordinance. The poster shall be prominently displayed in a conspicuous place which can be readily observed by passersby at or near the entrance to the establishment.

(6) Penalties. 900 A violation of this Section shall constitute a Class III offense.

Memorandum:

TO: Francis T. Healy, Esq., Special Advisor to the Police Commissioner

FROM: Paula Weiss, Esq., Executive Director, Office of Administrative Review

DATE: November 14, 2016

RE: Code Violation Notices Issued for The Philadelphia Code Section 9-627

As per your request, attached please find a report of Code Violation Notices (CVNs) issued for violations of The Philadelphia Code Section 9-627, remaining open for business between 11 pm and 6 am on a residential blockface, for fiscal years 2015 and 2016.

This report contains individual issuance locations, and the results of any administrative review hearings which may have taken place at the request of the violation recipient. Those CVNs without a noted disposition are CVNs that are uncontested by the recipients. There is a descriptive list of the disposition codes used.

Please let me know if you need clarifications or have any questions.

Dear Councilman Oh,

Thank you for sharing with me the study prepared by your Office, entitled "Examples of Selective Enforcement of Section 9-627," updated 8/21/17. I have reviewed the study and I agree with you that it raises important questions, including the possibility of race-based enforcement. I have discussed the study and those questions with the Police Department. As a result of those discussions, I am comfortable that there is no discriminatory enforcement of Section 9-627 taking place currently and that none will occur going forward, under current Department policies.

It is apparent to me that the reasons for any individual instance of what appears to be selective enforcement could be many and varied, and would require an individualized examination of each particular case. Given that the latest example presented in the study of alleged selective enforcement occurred more than one year ago, and most of the examples occurred significantly farther back in time than that, and given the change in Department policies that give me confidence that there is no discriminatory enforcement currently and that there will be no discriminatory enforcement going forward, I believe our collective resources are better devoted to ensuring that the status quo remains in place.

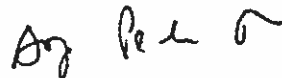

I intend to continue discussions with the Police Department so that I can remain confident that no discriminatory enforcement is occurring. I also understand that there are discussions underway regarding possible revisions to Section 9-627, and that it is hoped that eliminating potential ambiguities in that Ordinance will lead to reduced confusion in its implementation, and, thus, reduced potential for actual or perceived discriminatory enforcement. At least as importantly, though, I very much hope that you will remain vigilant in reporting to me in real time any suspected or alleged instances of discriminatory enforcement. I commit to you that I will look into any such suspicions or allegations promptly.

Honorable Sozi Pedro Tulante
City Solicitor
Law Department
1515 Arch Street, 17th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Dear City Solicitor Tulante,

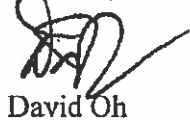

I have received and read your letter dated September 15, 2017, addressing the discriminatory enforcement of Section 9-627 against the owners of Chinese takeout restaurants in Philadelphia. In January 2017, when we first discussed this issue, I informed you that in FY 2015, 96% of the total Code Violation Notices were issued to Chinese takeout restaurants, and in FY 2016, 85% of the total Code Violation Notices were issued to Chinese takeout restaurants. My office has provided the Law Department the data that served as the basis of this striking finding.

In addition, my office has relied on the same data to identify businesses that are nearby the Chinese takeout restaurants that were ticketed during FY 2015-2016, and that are open to the public after 11 P.M. We compiled our findings in a study entitled, "Examples of Selective Enforcement of Section 9-627," updated August 21, 2017, which you have received. In the study, we identified 7 locations with non-Chinese business establishments located on the same blockfaces as the Chinese takeout restaurants, and 16 locations with non-Chinese business establishments, mostly within one block radius in relation to the Chinese takeout restaurants. The records show that only the Chinese business establishments were found in violation of Section 9-627. Furthermore, the study identified 4 locations of Chinese takeout restaurants that received Code Violation Notices despite being located on a commercial blockface, and therefore does not violate the ordinance.

Those are concrete examples that reveal the targeted use of Section 9-627 based on race and locality. Therefore, as an attorney, I disagree with your conclusion that there is no discrimination in the enforcement of Section 9-627, as stated in your letter dated September 15, 2017. I have been informed that the Police Department has temporarily stopped the enforcement of Section 9-627; however, as you know, there has not been an official documented change in policy.

The evidence of discrimination is clear, and I will continue to focus on achieving a permanent resolution to end discrimination against the Chinese takeout business owners in Philadelphia. I look forward to continuing to work with you.

Sincerely,
